

TOBACCO DELIVERIES TO MARKETS DELAYED

No 1920 Sales Yet Expected At Louisville—European Weed
Handlers Glutted

Tobacco warehousemen at Lexington say that there has been no general movement of tobacco from the farms to the warehouses for the opening of the market. So far as could be learned there have been no sales of 1920 burley leaf in Kentucky except at Louisville.

Most of the Lexington tobacco warehouses during the early fall permitted customers who were short of barn room to store some of their tobacco on the floors here and a large part of this stored leaf has been stripped and is now ready for market.

Rowlett & Gratz, Fayette county tobacco growers, have the distinction of bringing the first load of 1920 burley tobacco to the Lexington market, all stripped and ready for the sales which open on January 3. This consignment, comprising 2,800 pounds, and produced on about two acres of land was delivered to the Growers' Tobacco Warehouse Company Saturday and those who inspected it say that it is high grade leaf.

Lexington will have a big tobacco show in January, if present plans materialize. The project has the approval of officials of the Lexington Board of Commerce and has the hearty endorsement of tobacco growers of surrounding blue grass counties. Premiums will be offered for the best leaf in the various rings, the competition to be open to burley growers of the world. Expert judges are to be invited to award the prizes.

The Owensboro Messenger published down in the dark tobacco district, told the other day why the European demand is practically dead this year. The dark tobacco crops have been going almost exclusively to European buyers. The Messenger said:

A cable from London, England, to the United States Tobacco Journal, says:

"No interest is shown in tobacco, as stocks in this market are enormous. It is reported that existing supplies will be sufficient for four years."

The preceding brief tobacco item only confirms what Owensboro tobacco men have stated for the last several weeks.

"There is no use trying to make the farmers believe that they will get a price for their tobacco that compares favorably to last year," said J. E. Bowling, Mr. Bowling, who is president of the Owensboro Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, has just returned from New York. While there he visited the offices of all the leading tobacco companies. He is convinced that the American, Reynolds, Liggett & Myers, and Lorillard will not be on the Owensboro market before the first of the year. It is doubtful when the smaller companies will begin buying.

"The trouble is," said Mr. Bowling, "that many of the smaller companies with capital of from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, have stocks of tobacco on hand for which they paid from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000. They claim these tobacco stocks as assets, but they could not sell them at the present time for 50 per cent of their value. The big companies are also overstocked at high prices."

According to Mr. Bowling, the only foreign companies that will be on the local market at the start of the season will be the Imperial and Gallaher. These companies will take the top grades.

"The European countries do not want any more tobacco," said Mr. Bowling. "They have a large surplus on hand and in some instances are trying to re-ship their tobacco to this country. They have not got the money to pay for this year's crop, and some of the tobacco bought last year has not been paid for."

James Hodge, of the Hodge Tobacco Company, who recently returned from England, says that Europe does not want any more American tobacco at the present time. Mr. Hodge is also pessimistic regarding the price that will be paid for this year's crop. The only solution for the problem, as he sees it, is for the farmers to prize this year's crop of tobacco and pledge a part of it as a guarantee that they will cut out next year's crop of tobacco.

JOE BOGGS' WORK HAMPERED BY COURT

Work on roads in Kentucky will be confined to the maintenance of state roads and projects for which federal aid has been extended, according to State Highway Commissioner Boggs, as a result of the recent decision of the Court of Appeals that counties cannot loan money to the state. Federal aid projects, the construction of which will continue, are the Ohio River road, the Dixie Highway, the Midland Trail, the Jackson Highway, and the Dixie Bee Line.

There is at present about $1,900,000 available for road purposes in the state. The force of field engineers has been reduced to two and all surveying stopped.

BEST TALENT IN CITY FOR LEGION MINSTRELS

When the curtain rises on the sumptuous First Part of the American Legion minstrels which will be staged by the local post on the nights of December 14 and 15, Richmond theatre goers will once more have the opportunity of witnessing a real, old time minstrel show. The production is under the direction of "Gov." Bowen, formerly with the Al. G. Fields Minstrels, and one of the best known black faced artists in the country.

The First Part is christened "The Fun Festival," and is replete with the latest songs and jokes of the day. The scene for this is laid atop the New Savoy, New York City, and the stage setting and electrical effects are in themselves a revelation.

The Second Part or Olio, is composed of several big time acts, among which are: "The Two Recruits," "The Gambling Gamblers," and Gov. Bowen's latest dance conception of "Down in Dixie." One of the features of this part of the entertainment will be the harmonizing of the quartet composed of Messrs. Rodes S. Terrill, Charles Stamler, J. W. and E. T. Wiggins.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the beautiful scenery and gorgeous costumes carried by Mr. Bowen this season, and the press and public throughout the country have been loud in their praise of not only the scenic and costuming effect, but also of the high class up-to-the-minute show he is producing. The very best local talent have volunteered their services and every indication points to a banner production, both from an artistic and financial standpoint.

JACKSON CO. BOYS ARE HELD OVER

McKee, Ky., Dec. 2—At an examining trial, Beecher Smith, 14, and Carlo Smith, 12, were held for trial at the January term of the circuit court on the charge of having slain their father, Sam Smith, in the Clover Bottom section of this county. The boys are in jail here. It is charged that the lads killed their father with a rock. Particulars of what caused the tragedy have not been disclosed.

MAN DRAWS PISTOL DURING MOVIE SHOW

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Ky., Dec. 2—Women screamed and with children rushed for exits during the showing of a wild west picture at the opera house here last night, when a young man leaped to his feet brandishing a pistol and declaring he would kill any one who would attempt to stop a fight between the villain and the heroine's pet bear. While the bear was apparently tearing the villain to pieces, the young man's actions added the climax to the situation. Cooler heads quieted the audience and averted a panic. The police took him in charge and he gave the name of Uncas Howard. His pistol was confiscated.

BLOODHOUNDS ON MURDERERS TRAIL

Whisky Thieves Attack and Kill
Guard At Old Pepper Distillery In Fayette

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Dec. 2—Bloodhounds early today took the trail of a band of whisky thieves who shot and killed William B. Anderson, 55, a revenue agent stationed at the Old Pepper distillery near here early this morning. A number of men attempted to overpower Anderson and guard Wm. Nix, while they were making the rounds of the distillery. Anderson fired at them and in a return volley he was killed. Nix telephoned to the Lexington police.

The Eastern Tobacco Slump Yet Effective

The Carolina and Virginia tobacco markets have not recovered from the early season price slump despite radically changed conditions in the situation, according to reports received by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association from its correspondents in the southern market Wednesday.

Averages in eight principal southern markets for the week ending November 18, were given as follows:

Wilson, N. C., $29.99 a hundred.
Henderson, N. C., $23.20.
Warsaw, N. C., $18.00.
Kingston, N. C., $22.00.
Oxford, N. C., $28.00.
Danville, Va., $29.13.
South Boston, Va., $27.00.
Durham, N. C., $27.30 2-8.
The average at Henderson in 1919 for the same period was $79.10, at Oxford $56, and at Durham $58.15.

WITH THE MOVIES

Henry B. Walthall, who is the star of "The Boomerang," seven-reel production being shown here today, added to his fame by appearing in the picture, but is minus a fur coat and a gold watch. He said he would be satisfied with a little fame if he could get the missing articles back. In the taking of one of the big mob scenes it was in the scenario that Walthall should quell the rioters. He did the job all right, but in the excitement his overcoat was torn off and his watch taken from his pocket. The watch did not amount to so much, but the fur overcoat was given to him by an Hawaiian princess, and every time that Walthall thinks of some super walking around in it his blood boils.

WOULD LOAN MILLIONS TO FARMERS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Dec. 2—Bulletin—Immediate loans of sixty million dollars from the government funds to aid farmers in the face of falling prices on their products is proposed in a bill drawn today by Senator Hitchcock, democrat, of Nebraska, after a conference with Governor Harding of the Federal Reserve Board. Hitchcock plans to present the measure when Congress meets next week.

The total gross debt is now approximately $24,175,000,000.

CHAS. S. ROGERS IN RACE FOR JAILER

Friends of Charles S. Rogers, who was a bang-up second for the Democratic nomination for Jailer in the primary about four years ago, have induced him to announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination in the primary next year. Mr. Rogers comes from an old-time democratic family and is known as one of the true blue sort. He has friends in all sections of the county, who believe that he is entitled to the nomination at this time, and they are going to work with might and main to see that he gets it, they say. Mr. Rogers and his friends are going to make an active campaign, and they are confident that his friends in all sections of the county will rally to him when the time rolls around.

Deputy Sheriffs To Act With Military In Coal Strike Zone

(By Associated Press)
Williamsburg, W. Va., Dec. 2—Deputy sheriffs are to be assigned to each military detachment on duty in the Mingo county strike zone, it was stated at military headquarters here today. This is in order to permit civil authorities to function as usual. They will act under the direction of the military unless the situation becomes acute. Thirty-six hours have passed without violence.

To Simplify Tax Laws

(By Associated Press)
Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 2—Gov. Sproul in addressing the Governor's Conference here today, advocated the creation of a national commission representing both state and federal governments, to revise and simplify tax laws. He explained the states should have revenues and taxation sources saved from the depletion of federal collections.

KERENSKY TO LEAD ATTACK ON RUSSIA

Paris, Dec. 2—A simultaneous offensive by Poland, Hungary and Roumania, commander by Alexandre Kerensky, will be started against Soviet Russia about the middle of March, according to a decision said to have been reached at a meeting behind locked doors in the Russian Embassy at Paris last night.

Kerensky, who has returned from a tour of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Roumania coming offensive, whereby Poland would strike eastward in the direction of Kiev, effect a junction there with the Hungarian army, which would cross Galicia if Czechoslovakia agrees, otherwise through Bessarabia. While these maneuvers were progressing the Roumanian division, reinforced by General Wrangel's army of adventurers, would march toward Moscow by way of the Ukraine.

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR RELIEF WORK

Miss Curraleeen C. Smith and Mr. R. M. Rowland, Richmond, have been chosen chairman and treasurer, respectively, to officiate during a campaign just starting for relief to the Armenians and Syrians, who remain loyal to the Allies during the war, and who have been rendered destitute and are in a starving condition as a result of the ravages of the big conflict.

They were selected at the instigation of Mrs. F. V. Smith, of Louisville, who is here in the interest of the work, representing the state association for the Near East Relief funds. It is expected the work will become general here, in the city as well as in the county, since there is said to be much dire necessity of food and clothing to prevent thousands from starving during the coming winter.

On Sunday, December 12, ministers of the city are asked to deliver sermons in the interest of the sufferers and school teachers of the city have announced they will take up the proposition of interesting the students in the relief work.

Ex-Fiance Denies He Tried To Kill Girl

Middlesboro, Ky., Dec. 2—An added element of mystery was given the midnight attack on Miss Fannie Brasher, telephone operator, when her rejected fiancé, James Thompson, arrested last night, denied her story that he was her assailant.

"I was at home asleep at the time and can prove it," Thompson declared.

However, he was indicted by the grand jury, before which he appeared this afternoon, on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

The jury visited the bedside of the girl today and based the indictment on her story. Thompson also was a witness before the jury.

Miss Brasher, who was beaten unconscious in the telephone exchange office, first declared the intruder was a negro but later said it was Thompson, who told her he intended to kill her.

First Ky. Woman Throws Bonnet Into the Ring

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 2—Miss Stella May, cousin of Governor Morrow, is the first woman to announce her candidacy for County Court Clerk in Kentucky. She is an avowed candidate for clerk of Pulaski county. She served as deputy clerk in that office, and is now a clerk in the Workmen's Compensation department here.

RECORD BREAKING TAX PAYING LIST

Fewer Unpaid Bills In Madison County Than Ever Before
With Tobacco Crop Unsold

There are fewer tax bills unpaid in Richmond and Madison county at this time than for many years past and this fact was very evident, states Sheriff Pete Whitlock at the close of the last day of November, since the penalty for non-payment was attached immediately. There was approximately $30,000 more paid in at the office of the sheriff during the last ten days than the corresponding period any previous year, and this saying a good deal.

The fact is all the more creditable since it is known that this year for the first time there has been no money realized on the tobacco crop, it having been heretofore disposed of to a large degree at this time.

Indications are that the residents of the county are better off financially this year than ever before, although they have been and are still paying higher prices for labor on the farm. This immense amount paid in within a period of two days represents hundreds of bills and the seemingly impossible task of caring for them has been mastered and the receipts are correct and in full. The books at the sheriff's office indicate the greatest tax paying period in the history of the county.

"There is not the usual delinquent list," stated Sheriff Whitlock, in speaking of the large amount paid in over the usual amount of former years, "and there will not be the trouble there has been in former years, since the payments have been more general, and some who have been tardy in paying in years gone by, have evidently profited by their experience, since some of them were among the early ones to report."

No excuses are acceptable, since there have been formal notices sent out, and issued thru regular channels and the county will proceed to collect the additional costs represented by law. This will, it is believed, in the future, eliminate most of the delinquents, since they are growing less each year, it is said. The conditions are improving and officials connected with the collection of taxes in the county and keeping the records, are optimistic over facts represented this year.

"Madison county is surely in a good way, financially," commented Sheriff Whitlock, in discussing the situation. The prompt payment of so many taxpayers will enable the force at the office to place the returns on record within a short time and do away with much additional work which would have been the result of a big delinquent list.

The Long-For Gift
A Christmas exchange which seems to have interesting possibilities has been started by a number of large department stores. The puzzled Christmas giver writes the names of his friends and sends the list to the store's "Christmas-giving" department. Letters are then sent by the department to these people asking them what they want for Christmas. They are supposed to reply frankly, not knowing who are their would-be benefactors. The department sends copies of these lists to the givers—and there they are. They know positively what their friends want. They know several things each friend wants, in fact, and ought to be able to find exactly the right gift within the proper price range.

Fear of giving the wrong thing has furrowed the brow of many a Christmas shopper. This plan is one that might well be undertaken by a local store, or, with a moderate price for the service, by some church committee anxious to take a little Christmas money on its own account.

Santa Claus would undoubtedly appreciate any such efforts to conserve his energy. He has to cover a good deal of ground these days, and every little attention helps.

WOMAN'S WILD FLIGHT FOR SAFETY IN MEXICO

Dallas, Texas, Dec. 2.—Toward Mexico leads the trail of Mrs. Clara Smith Hamon, secretary of the late Jake L. Hamon, Republican national committee man from Oklahoma, who died five days ago in Ardmore, Okla. of a bullet wound the woman is believed to have inflicted.

Russell R. Brown, county attorney at Ardmore, who is investigating the murder, Wednesday made a statement relative to the search for Mrs. Hamon, which was made Sunday by E. W. Gallis, of Dallas, Texas, a service car driver.

"It was early last Wednesday morning that this young woman stopped my car in Dallas," Mr. Gallis said. "She was nervous. She instructed me to drive to a flying field and to get there as quickly as possible.

"We reached the field before 6 o'clock. She jumped from my car and rushed up to a machine.

"The mechanic explained she could not start her proposed flight for several hours.

"She ran back to me. 'Can you drive fast—fast—fast?' she screamed at me. 'If you are able to break speed records I'll hire you by the day.'

"As we bounded out of Dallas toward Cisco my passenger kept urging me to more desperate speed.

"We stopped at Waxahachie for lunch. Both of us went into a restaurant.

"Our meal had just been served when she screamed and fell forward in her seat.

"The town constable had lounged into the restaurant. His star was blazing brightly on his suspenders.

"I'm going into the car," she then whispered. "I'll wait for you there, hurry."

"Huddled into the rear of the car I found her. She was shaking with hysteria and tears were falling steadily. In her lap were two automatics and she was crying all over them.

"I'm afraid," she said to me. 'Drive me faster than you ever drove before. Did you see the way that man—the one with the star—looked at me?'

"And as we whizzed along she asked, 'If a woman shoots a man when in Oklahoma, can she be arrested in Texas or Mexico?'

"I told her 'yes' and she fell to shivering violently.

"Which is better—easier, I mean—to kill a man with a new gun or an old one that's rusty?' she chattered out again.

"I said I guessed a rusty one would kill him easier.

"Oh, I'm so sorry," the words came suddenly. 'I shot him with a new gun—and I wish I'd used the rusty one. I wish I'd killed him outright.'

"Then she told me she had shot a man.

"I suggested that maybe it was no very bad—that the fellow would get over it. 'No, no, he won't,' she cried. 'It's serious.'

"About 2:30 o'clock next morning we drove into Cisco. She gave me money and told me to buy a ticket for El Paso. She said she was afraid of being caught if she bought it herself.

"I purchased the ticket and turned it over to the girl. She went into the hotel, as the next El Paso train was not due to pass for hours."

Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and . . . I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles. If you feel the need of a good, strengthening tonic, why not try Cardui? It may be just what you need.

TRIALS SEQUEL TO WEDDING

Frankfort, Ky.—Elmer Hudson married Miss Eloise Green at Switzer. Russell Green, her guardian, and John Hudson, the groom's uncle, met on the road and quarreled. Then each swore out warrants. Green was fined $10 and Hudson dismissed after everybody in that end of the county had told all they knew about the feud.

HARDING MAY USE PRESIDENT'S YACHT

Washington, Dec. 2.—By direction of President Wilson, Secretary Joseph Daniels placed the presidential yacht Mayflower at the disposal of President-elect Warren G. Harding to complete his trip from Panama to Washington.

The secretary sent a radiogram to Senator Harding on the steamer Pastores, en route to Norfolk, informing him that the Mayflower would be at Hampton Roads Saturday, when the Pastores is due there, and that President Wilson would be happy to have Senator Harding use the vessel for the passage to Washington.

The message said: "The Mayflower will be in Hampton Roads upon your arrival, and the president will be happy to place it at your disposal, as he understands you are coming to Washington from Norfolk."

The groom will soon become pastor of the Christian church at Kirkville.
 Their many friends here will be interested in the following account of their wedding in the Stanford Journal:

"A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. W. H.
 Underwood, grandfather of the bride, on November 24, when Rev. F. N.
 Tinder, Jr., and Miss Lissa Holtsclaw were made one. It was a very quiet lovely affair, quite in keeping with the bride. The father of the groom officiated, performing the ring ceremony. Just before the ceremony
 Miss Elizabeth Higgins sang 'Because.' Miss Mary Moore Raney played Lohengrin's wedding march who regret to see him leave. Miss Holtsclaw is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Anna Bailey and has spent her life in Stanford; lovely of face and disposition, she has endeared herself to her many friends. The bride was attired in a lovely dark blue Char-

BIG DEMAND FOR HORSES AND MULES

Predicted That Start Has Been Made For Gaining All Horse Power Possible

Dr. William D. Pryor, veterinarian, who has been giving the matter of horse and mule power considerable attention for several years, predicts a greater price per head for these animals than has ever been realized heretofore. The wars have drawn every available bit of horse power from this and other countries, he claims, and there will be an unprecedented demand for both horses and mules which is already in evidence, and his advice to farmers is to raise horses and mules of a good class.

"Germany," as well as other countries," Dr. Pryor says, "already has representative agents here seeking horses and mules to replenish their armies, as well as to assist the farmers, many of whom are using ordinary milk cows for plowing purposes. There are agents of several foreign countries here to buy all horses that are to be found, and the conditions will be more pronounced as time goes on, for the return to agricultural pursuits will bring about a demand that will require everything in the way of a horse."

"You would be surprised at stock being bought at big sales for foreign service," said the veterinarian, speaking of a recent trip to the horse sales in St. Louis. "They are buying everything they can find, and you would be surprised at the car load after car load booked out to foreign countries. They are bringing fair prices, so what would a good horse or mule bring? The demand will become greater and I predict the greatest demand in the history of the world within a year or two. The gasoline and more modern equipped farm paraphernalia will not become extensive there for years to come, and this is another reason the demand for horses and mules will continue to be great. I would advocate the raising of horses by the wholesale since mule colts can be bought now for a moderate price and feed is cheaper, and there will be another drop, I believe, and this would admit of the maintenance of stock and it is my opinion there could not be a more productive occupation at present with brighter prospects than the raising of horses and mules. There are good grazing lands here and the country is well adapted for it. The demand will be found in the price later on, and the man with a number of horses and mules will be the one that will get the money."

TOBACCO GROWERS PROTECT PRODUCT

That there will be no tobacco sold and but little upon which money will be advanced before the official period for selling, is the theory of many producers in this part of the state. Hereafter it has been the custom of many, it is claimed, to move their product to the warehouse where money would be drawn upon it. The fact that this will not be extensively done this season is indicative of the good financial condition of many of the growers. Of more than a dozen asked regarding this matter, all stated there would be little tobacco moving for some time, and that most of the producers were able to hold their product until the proper time for selling and leave the crop unincumbered. The condition in Madison county relative to finance is said to be about the best in the state. There were high wages paid, however, during the planting season, but all seem able to hold their crops until they desire to sell. Many claim they will haul their product to the market offering the best price.

LAND PRICES HOLDING UP (By Associated Press)
Mt. Sterling, Ky., Dec. 2.—Farm land prices in this vicinity apparently show little tendency to drop with the falling prices of hogs, cattle, corn and tobacco. The sale of the Shackelford farm of 98 acres a mile and a half from Mt. Sterling has just been recorded at $210 an acre. The sale was made at public auction.

AUTO LICENSE BUREAU IS NOW OPEN HERE

Deputy Clerk C. B. Terrill is now ready to take applications for auto license plates for next year. The new law placing the issue of motor car licenses in the hands of the county clerk instead of the state automobile department became effective Wednesday, December 1.

Chauffeurs also must go to the county clerks for licenses. The new license tags will be the same size as those of 1920 and with the same white background, but instead of the letters and figures being black this time they will be heavier brown in color.

Under the law as amended by the last legislature and which made the state automobile department a bureau of the state tax commission, license fees were raised to 60 cents per horsepower for pleasure cars. The fee for trucks was made $22 for half-ton vehicles; $30 for one-ton; $40 for one and one-half tons and increasing $10 per half-ton up to five tons capacity. Trucks of over five tons capacity pay $150 per year.

Favorite numbers of automobilists are not available this time unless the motor car owner happens to live in the county to which the number is assigned and gets to the county clerk's office at the proper time to get the number. For the numbers have been assigned to counties according to the number of pleasure cars, trucks, etc., licensed in the county during the past year. The assignment was made in alphabetical order with Adair county coming first and getting the numbers from 1 to 500 for pleasure cars; one to fifty for trucks and chauffeurs; one to ten for motorcycles; one to ten for dealers.

Pleasure car numbers assigned, number 162,200; truck plates 28,050; motorcycle plates 2,870; dealers 2,240, and chauffeurs' licenses 28,050. The assignments for counties in this section are:

Bourbon—county seat, Paris—Passenger plates, 9,401-12,200; trucks, 1,151-1,500; motorcycles, 106-120; dealers, 141-160; chauffeurs, 1,151-1,500.

Boyle—county seat, Danville—Passenger plates, 14,601-16,600; trucks, 2,051-2,250; motorcycles, 181-210; dealers, 141-160; chauffeurs, 2,051-2,250.

Clark—county seat, Winchester—Passenger plates, 33,001-35,200; trucks, 4,501-4,950; motorcycles, 516-530; dealers, 431-460; chauffeurs, 4,601-4,950.

Fayette—county seat, Lexington—Passenger plates, 40,051-47,500; trucks, 5,701-7,200; motorcycles, 676-875; chauffeurs, 5,701-7,200.

Franklin—county seat, Frankfort—Passenger tags, 29,051-50,900; trucks, 7,401-7,800; motorcycles, 901-925; dealers, 686-715; chauffeurs, 7,401-7,800.

Madison—county seat, Richmond—Passenger tags, 117,751-120,050; trucks, 22,251-22,550; motorcycles, 2,356-2,370; dealers, 1,576-1,605; chauffeurs, 22,251-22,550.

Mercer—county seat, Harrodsburg—Passenger tags, 125,001-127,200; trucks, 23,201-23,550; motorcycles, 2,446-2,480; dealers, 1691-1720.

Mayor To Take Census

Mayor Florence, of Stanford, soon is expected to begin taking a personal census of the people of Stanford. An announcement made there said that the Mayor agreed to take a new census if Gov. Cox carried Kentucky. "Looks like a week's work on his hands," the statement says. The official census showed Stanford a considerable loss in 10 years and public spirited citizens are backing the move to take another census.

Commissioner's Sale

Elizabeth Winkler, Etc, Plff. vs. Mildred Portwood, Etc, Dft.

Pursuant to judgment and order of sale entered in the above styled action by the Madison Circuit Court at its October term, 1920, the undersigned Commissioner will expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder on at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., in front of the court house door in Richmond, Ky., the same being a regular county court day, the following described property:

Monday, Dec. 6, 1920

A house and about two acres of land on the waters of Drowning Creek in Madison county, Ky., the same being the late residence of W. B. Winkler, and adjoining the lands of William Blanton and others.

Terms—Said property will be sold on a credit of six months, the purchaser being required to execute sale bonds payable to the Commissioner and bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent from day of sale until paid, or purchaser may pay cash if he so desires. R. B. TERRILL, Master Com. M. C. C. pro rata share of the money on hand.

New Farm Manager

Owing to his extensive class work, Prof. Cox, who has had charge of the Eastern Normal farm work, has been relieved of this responsibility and it will be undertaken by Prof. Carter, who will take up the task and have charge during the coming year. There are bright prospects, owing to the large number of students interested in the agricultural department and the added facilities of the school for instruction and demonstration work.

E. N. Holiday Vacation

The holiday vacation for students of Eastern Normal will doubtless extend over a period of ten days, during which many are expected to visit their homes. The close of the institution generally is expected to take place on Thursday, December 23, and resume on the Tuesday week following. This will admit of the faculty as well as students enjoying the holidays as well as taking a rest.

The Community Club of the First Christian church is announcing a benefit concert by the Dinevor Welch Concert Company for evening of December 18th. The concert will be for the Associated Charities. It is expected to make this an event of community-wide interest, not only because the concert company is one of the best in the country and the program of the highest order, but because it will be the big event of the first part of the winter for the Associated Charities.

The club, recently organized, is devoting its time to the promotion of community welfare. Already a large amount of clothing has been gathered for charities and the concert it being held to supplement this with funds.

UNIFORMS ISSUED TO TEAM MEMBERS

Normal Men Prepare To Enter Fast Company—Model Has
Two Games Booked

The curtain has fallen on the first act of the athletic season at the Eastern Kentucky State Normal and the second act began Tuesday afternoon, when Coach Hembree issued basketball uniforms to the new aggregation of men, both of the normal department and the high school department. The association is handicapped to a certain extent in that there is no gymnasium on the Normal campus, but through the courtesy of the Madison high, the games will be played on their floor this season.

There will be something like 25 or 30 men from whom the Normal may pick, a number of old men being in the list of eligibles. Among them is Fox, of Winchester, who made quite a "rep." on the Kentucky Wesleyan football team during the season just closed, and who has a number of points in his favor as a basketball player. There are others of equal caliber, from the way they demonstrated their ability in the short practice received. Quite a number of the Normal school boys are away on a trip at present and will not return until the end of the week. It is expected that some of these fellows will make their appearance on the floor as soon as they have finished their work in Letcher county.

Fourteen Model high men were on the floor during the afternoon, a number of whom are old players some having played on the Normal team last year. William Blanton, who guided the football team during the season as quarterback, was chosen to command the basketball squad this season. Blanton played on the Normal team last year and is considered a reliable forward. These fellows are in good physical condition every member of the football squad being on the list for basketball. Capt. Bill Crutcher, of the football team, was out Tuesday and no doubt will prove his worth here, too.

The schedule for the Normal team has not been arranged, but requests for games with the University of Louisville, University of Kentucky, Transylvania, Cumberland College, Union College, Lincoln Memorial University, Sue Bennett Memorial, the Western State Normal and Kentucky Wesleyan—most of these teams will be booked for games here and on their own floors.

Two games have been arranged with the Winchester high school for December 18 here and January 8 or their floor by the Model high school. Other games with Frankfort, Danville, Paris, Model high at Lexington and other high schools of this section will be arranged for the team during the season.

Auction Sale

OF

Land and Personal Property
Wednesday, December 8

AT 10 A. M.

we will sell for Mr. J. F. Brewer his fine
Blue Grass Farm, near Foxtown, Ky., Consisting of 130 Acres Well Improved

This farm is situated in Madison county, Ky., not far from Foxtown, 8 miles from Richmond, 19 miles from Lexington and 4 miles from Boonesboro, near Mt. Pleasant church on the R. and L. pike, and also near Republic church, and the new consolidated graded school in course of being constructed on the Boonesboro pike. Daily R. F. D. mail service on each pike. Telephone connection with the line on either pike can be easily made at small cost.

The residence is a comparatively new frame, metal roof, 8 room dwelling, 6 of them plastered. A commodious stock farm barn and a good sized new tobacco barn, each with metal roof. Under good fence inside and boundary. Neat yard and garden. Fine cistern at kitchen door. Farm well watered, lasting spring and pool. Lightly rolling and drained. Limestone formation upon which rests a deep blue grass soil suitable for corn, tobacco, hemp and timothy.

Offered in 2 Tracts and Then as a Whole

If not the best, this farm is in one of the best communities in Madison county which should be considered in estimating the desirability and value of a home for one's self and family. The fact that Mr. Brewer's chief investments and home are in another state, constitute his only reason for offering to sell this splendid home which adjoins the lands of Richard McKee, Richmond, Ky., and the Republican church site, and the home land of George Burgin and Wm. M. Jenkins, just across the Hick's mill road, and Dr. Perry, and Leslie Long, between my farm and the Boonesboro pike. Wood work and blacksmith shop, well stocked county stores nearby, thus supplying convenient market for all the minor farm products.

Conditions and terms liberal. Made known on day of sale.
Any intending purchaser need not fret about the terms. All that is wanted is the worth of this property and to be secured in the payment of the purchase money.

Title clean and unincumbered; possession will be given on the first day of January, 1921, tax free, but the right of ingress and egress will be retained till March 1, 1921, for the purpose of preparing and getting away my tobacco and other crops, but this right will not be exercised to the hurt or damage of the purchaser or his tenant.

After sale of the farm, there will be offered to the highest and best bidder 250 barrels of corn, 6 stacks of timothy, general line of farming implements and household goods, and one Buick Touring Car, and some good cattle.

Call at our office, we will be glad to show you this farm.
